Camp activities: morning, afternoon and night game drives, walking safaris (during the rainy season these may be suspended for safety reasons), mokoro excursions (subject to hippo activity in times of low water) and a Khwai Village visit.

Khwai Bush Camp fast facts

- 4 standard & 2 family chalets
- Lush setting & pretty woodlands
- Superb game viewing: big cats, buffalo, elephant, hippo
- Walking safaris, day & night game drives
- Mokoro excursions (seasonal & depending on water-levels)
- Upliftment projects & community-run concession

Khwai Bush Camp is built on the banks of the Khwai River, in the Tsaro Concession, nestled amongst a forest of sycamore and leadwood trees. Thatched and spacious, the accommodation consists of 4 standard and 2 family chalets, with private en-suite bathrooms and views over the water and on into the Moremi. Preserving the romance of yester-year, Khwai has a simple harmony with nature and blends seamlessly into the surrounding setting, with minimal impact on the environment. Varied eco-systems offer guests forest, grasslands, lush floodplains and lagoons, with consistent year-round wildlife encounters. Enjoy day and night game drives and guided walks, seasonal mokoro excursions, dependant on water-levels and cultural tours of the local villages. Children under 16yrs are not permitted on walks or mokoros.

Linyanti Bush Camp fast facts

- 6 luxury tents with private decks
- Authentic, simple camp: close to nature
- Superb game viewing & excellent birdlife
- Variety of activities: water & land based
- Splash pool

Linyanti Bush Camp is situated in the private Chobe Enclave, bordering the western boundary of Chobe National Park. Nestled on the banks of the Linyanti River, surrounded by pristine wilderness, the camp boasts extensive vistas over the Linyanti Marsh, and the diverse landscape promises superb game viewing. Intimate and authentic, the 6 luxurious tents are simply designed and tastefully furnished. Each features a private deck with picturesque outlooks. The open-sided canvas main tent includes a bar, lounge and dining area and guests can socialise in comfort, whilst gazing out over the floodplains and marshes where large herds of elephant and buffalo are seen. Lion, sable, roan, leopard and wild dog may be spotted, in addition to sitatunga and red lechwe. Enjoy day and night game drives, bush walks, birding and mokoro excursions which are dependent on water levels.
