Singita Sweni Lodge

Accommodation 2 nights in Suite/s

Meal basis Fully Inclusive

Located within a 13,000 hectare private concession in the south east region of the Kruger National Park is the exclusive Singita Sweni Lodge. Flanking the Sweni River, this tranquil sanctuary is elevated on stilts, giving you the sensation of being outdoors close to the river and trees, even when you are indoors.

The six secluded suites have been influenced by the structures of dens, warrens and lairs found in the area. They have been carefully created with tactile furnishings to bring in the textures and shades of the bush. Designed with open-plan living in mind, your suite flows from the bathroom area, through to the lounge and into the bedroom; yet should you wish, each area may be sealed off by curtains. Suites include floor-to-ceiling glass walls, luxurious bathrooms, indoor and outdoor showers that overlook the river, an expansive living area, minibar and a private leisure deck with a day bed that can be used to "camp out" under the stars. The main lodge boasts a timber deck lounge and dining area with breathtaking views onto the bush and Sweni River, a bar, additional lounge with a fireplace, a wine cellar and swimming pool.

Activities available include twice daily game drives with professional guides and trackers, guided safari walks on request, mountain biking and archery.

Includes: All meals, all drinks including premium wines, spirits, liqueurs, laundry, 2 safaris a day, walking safaris, mountain biking safaris (accompanied by experienced guides and trackers) and return transfers from the Singita airstrip to the lodges.

Singita Ebony Lodge

Accommodation 2 night in Suite/s * INCLUDES FREE NIGHT

Meal basis Fully Inclusive

Standing steadfast amongst enormous trees on the banks of the Sand River in the western Sabi Sand Private Reserve, is Singita Ebony. The original Singita Lodge, Ebony has a commanding presence while welcoming visitors with the warmth of a family home.

The 10 opulent secluded thatched suites exude sumptuous coziness, with rooms styled in an eclectic mix of colours, fabrics and textures. With a blend of European heritage and African boldness the luxury suites are air-conditioned; consist of a grand glass fronted bathroom with indoor and outdoor shower and free-standing Victorian bathtub, an expansive living area with a double sided fireplace, minibar and fridge and a private wooden game viewing deck with a heated plunge pool. Two of the suites are double family suites. The main lodge has a comfortable colonial feel combined with African throws, antiques and collections of treasured artefacts, books and photographs. There is an elegant lounge and timber deck dining area overlooking the Sand River; a bar, traditional open boma, gymnasium, health spa, library (with internet access) and wine cellar.

Activities morning and afternoon game drives, guided safari walks (on request), mountain biking and archery.

Includes: All meals, all drinks including premium wines, spirits and liqueurs, 2 safaris a day, walking safaris and mountain biking safaris (accompanied by experienced guides and trackers), return transfers from the Singita airstrip to the lodges and

Tswalu Motse

Accommodation 4 nights in Motse Suite/s

Meal basis Fully Inclusive

One of just two lodges on the 100 000 hectare Tswalu Kalahari Reserve, The Motse (meaning 'village' in the local Tswana language) lies at the foot of the Korannaberg mountain range, facing westwards across the grasslands of the Kalahari.

The lodge consists of just eight spacious and secluded suites - or 'legae' (Tswana for 'little house') - all effortlessly fusing contemporary furniture with traditional African art and artefacts. Built of local stone, rich red clay and traditional Kalahari thatch, each suite comprises a spacious bedroom with an open fire, a sumptuous en-suite bathroom with both indoor and outdoor shower, and a large dressing and study area. A private sun deck overlooks the lodge waterhole and the variety of Kalahari birds and animals it attracts. Two legae have been designed especially for families. Each offers two separate bedroom suites with their own en-suite bathrooms, separated by an expansive living room again leading on to a shady, private terrace. These legae are each over 170 square metres in size and create the perfect environment for any family group.

The main house is a wonderful space in which to meet, with its elevated decks and elegant lounges. An infinity pool offers views over the waterhole and across the Kalahari landscape and a secluded spa is designed to complete your total relaxation. The mezzanine library is equipped with satellite TV (the Motse also has full broadband Wi-Fi access throughout) and its museum cases display rare artefacts from the area.

Priding itself on maximum flexibility guests of Tswalu have a personal consultation on arrival. Activities are unique, fun and captivating. They include daily game drives in the morning, afternoon or evening, walking safaris, night walking safaris, tracking desert-adapted Black Rhino, horseback safaris (accompanied by an equestrian guide with expert tuition if required), bonding with the meerkat colony, sleep outs under the stars on the Malori Sleep Out Deck, walks to ancient archaeological sites of Bushman rock carvings, tours of the staff village and the sensual Tswalu Kalahari Spa with indoor and outdoor treatments. The Kalahari has unique wildlife and dazzling panoramas creating endless spectacular photographic opportunities.

Includes: All meals, all beverages, selected premium South African wines, horseback, walking safaris, all child activities, free babysitting, private vehicle, guide, tracker, laundry and valet service.

Please note: A non-negotiable cancellation penalty of 25% comes into immediate effect on confirmation of this property. 50% Cancellation fee applies from 90 days prior to arrival and 100% from 45 days.
